Your Name:  Megan Gillespie

Your PIFP Organization:  The Gill Foundation

Please give a brief description of what you do for your organization:
I am currently working on a number of research projects to support the efforts of our Programs Department.

What’s the most interesting thing you’ve learned in your fellowship so far?
At the Gill Foundation I have had the opportunity to immerse myself in the history of the LGBT movement from the viewpoints of the organizations involved. More broadly, I am learning the steps organizations follow to be the mechanism of change.

Why did you want to become a PIFP Fellow?
As a sociology major I have a passion for social justice and I wanted to experience working for/with the people who create meaningful change in our everyday lives.

What activities outside of your work do you enjoy?
This summer I have been participating in the Denver Cruiser Ride, which is a mass themed bike ride every Wednesday night. On top of that, I have been exploring the city of Denver and the surrounding area!

What is something most people would be surprised to know about you?
I have visited Voodoo Donuts at least once a week this summer.
