WRITING CENTER APPLICATION
GS 300: Theory & Practice of Peer Tutoring
Half-Block 2016

Name:

Major or expected major: ____________________________  Class Year: _____

Best way to reach you:

Will you be on campus during Spring 2016?
Yes  No

Will you be on campus for the 2016-2017 school year?
Yes  No

How many hours per week do you want to work in the Writing Center?  ________________

I understand that I must be able to participate in the half-block course, GS300, January 4-14, 2016 and the extended format course, GS395, during blocks 5-8 in Spring 2016.

Signature  ______________________________________________________

The application includes three parts: short-answer questions, a writing sample (no more than 8 pages), and three endorsements from faculty members, administrators, or current Writing Center staff.* The endorsement form is attached. You must submit your application to the Writing Center in the Learning Commons at Tutt Library by 4:00 pm on Tuesday, October 13, 2015. Decisions regarding hiring will be made no later than Wednesday, November 11, 2015. If you have any questions about the position or the application process, please stop by the Writing Center or call ext. 6742. We will not accept late or incomplete applications.

Please answer the following questions.

1. What motivates you as an academic writer?

2. What sort of feedback do you value as a writer?

3. Have you ever used the Writing Center? If so, what has been your experience? If not, why not?

4. Have you ever taught or tutored anything? If so, describe the experience.

5. What other activities are you involved in?

If you are a first-year or transfer student, you may also include endorsements from former college instructors, high school teachers, RAs, and other CC staff. However, at least one of your three endorsements needs to come from a CC faculty member, and no more than one endorsement may come from the Writing Center staff. Please send non-CC affiliated endorsements via email to Tracy Santa, Writing Center director, at tracy.santa@coloradocollege.edu.
Writing Center Application Endorsement Form

Applicant: ____________________________________________________________________________

Course: GS 300 Theory & Practice of Peer Tutoring

The above-named student would like to enroll in the Writing Center’s Theory and Practice of Peer Tutoring, which is the first step toward becoming a writing consultant. As part of the application process, the student must obtain three endorsements from faculty, administrators, or current employees of the Writing Center. If you feel that the student’s writing and interpersonal skills qualify him or her to be a good Writing Center consultant, please sign below. If you have questions about the process, please call Writing Center Director Tracy Santa at (719) 389-6809.

1. __________________________________________________________________________ (signed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (printed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (relationship)

2. __________________________________________________________________________ (signed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (printed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (relationship)

3. __________________________________________________________________________ (signed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (printed)
   __________________________________________________________________________ (relationship)