YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1~TUESDAY~NOVEMBER 1
DENVER/EN ROUTE
Your journey begins this afternoon as you board your flight in USA for your overnight flight to Delhi. (Meals Aloft)

DAY 2~WEDNESDAY~NOVEMBER 2
DELHI
Your home for the next two nights will be in the premier business and commercial district – Connaught Place. Right next to lively shopping centers, office complexes and colorful streets, the hotel is fifteen miles from the international airport and just minutes from government offices, cultural centers and international trade fair grounds. It is also within close proximity to historical landmarks like India Gate, Jama Masjid and Red Fort. All rooms are air conditioned and consist of en suite bathrooms with stylish bath fittings. The interior of the rooms are decorated with antique furniture. The private balconies offer splendid view of the sprawling lawns and the cityscape. The Lalit New Delhi also offers a cosmopolitan choice of dining and entertainment options extends to eight restaurants and bars. These include the world famous "Blue Elephant" - serving royal Thai cuisine; "The Grill" - with trendy continental innovations; "Woks" for Chinese flavors; "Baluchi" with Indian specialties; "The Rendezvous" for all day dining and "Art Junction" – an art gallery with a cafe.

DAY 3~THURSDAY~NOVEMBER 3
DELHI
Spend today acclimating yourself to your new time zone and exploring one of the most fascinating cities in the world. India’s capital and political hub is an ancient city that has something for everyone. Settled seven times over the centuries, the city has grown in a way that reflects its past, while retaining its cosmopolitan flavor. Delhi is India’s showcase, be it architecture, religion, shopping, culture – everything is available here waiting to be discovered.

Venture off to Old Delhi for a visit to Jama Masjid, India’s largest mosque, with a courtyard capable of holding 25,000 devotees. Built in 1644, it was the last in the series of architectural indulgences of Shah Jahan, the Mughal emperor who also built the Taj Mahal and the Red Fort. The highly decorative mosque has three great gateways, four towers and two 135-ft high minarets constructed of strips of red sandstone and white marble. Visitors should dress respectfully (no shorts, mini-skirts, tank tops etc). Next, visit the Red Fort, once the most opulent fort and palace of the Mughal Empire. The main entrance to the fort is the Lahore Gate, named so for facing towards Lahore in Pakistan. Delhi Gate is similar to Lahore but grander in design and the gate was used by the emperor every Friday for ceremonial processions to the Jama Masjid. Upon entering through the Lahore Gate, you reach the Covered Bazaar also known as Chandni Chowk, one of the first covered bazaars of the 17th century where items sold included silks, jewelry, gems, silverware and other artistic objects. Today the bazaar carries various souvenirs and food items.

An extensive tour through New Delhi will also delight. Visit Humayun’s Tomb, built in the mid-16th century by the senior wife of the second Mughal emperor – the first significant example of Mughal architecture in India, and one of the most beautiful buildings in the city. The elements of its design are echoed in the later Taj Mahal. It comprises a squat building with high arched entrances topped by a bulbous dome and surrounded by formal gardens. Found at the gardens are the red-and-white sandstone and black-and-yellow marble tomb of Humayun's wife and, somewhat surprisingly, the tomb of Humayun's barber.

Qutub Minar is another interesting visit, whose superb buildings date from the onset of Islamic rule in India. The Qutub Minar itself is a soaring 240-ft high tower of victory that was started in 1193, immediately after the defeat of the last Hindu kingdom in Delhi. At its base is Quwwat-ul-Islam Masjid (Might of Islam Mosque), India's first. An inscription over the mosque's eastern gate provocatively informs that it was built with material obtained from demolishing 27 “idolatrous” (read Hindu) temples. A 23-ft high iron pillar stands in the courtyard of the mosque and it’s said that if you can encircle it with your hands while standing with your back to it, your wish will be unfulfilled; however, the pillar is now protected by a fence. Continue on your drive along the ceremonial avenue, Rajpath, past the imposing India Gate, Parliament House and the President’s residence before arriving back at your hotel.

Tonight’s welcome dinner will offer you an introduction to the astounding richness of Indian cuisine. Overnight at THE LALIT HOTEL NEW DELHI. (B,D)

DAYS 4/5—FRIDAY/SATURDAY—NOVEMBER 4/5

NAGPUR/PENCH NATIONAL PARK

Wake up early this morning for your flight to Nagpur and proceed on a drive to Pench National Park (56 miles-2 hours drive). Nestled in the lower southern reaches of the Satpura hills, it is named after Pench River which flows from north to south through the park. The terrain is filled with mainly gentle slopes criss-crossed by streams and nullahs. Most of these, of course, are seasonal, as is the Pench River which dries up by April, but a number of water pools locally known as 'dohs' are found, serving as waterholes for animals. A few perennial springs also exist. Recently a number of earthen ponds and shallow wells have been developed leading to well distributed sources of water all around the reserve.

The landscape supports a mosaic of vegetation ranging from moist, sheltered valleys to open, dry deciduous forest. Over 1,200 species of plants have been recorded in the area including several rare and endangered plants. As a result, Pench has the highest density of herbivores in India (90.3 animals per sq km). The area is especially famous for large herds of gaur, cheetal, sambar, nilgai, wild dog and pig. The key predator is the tiger followed by leopard, Wild dog and wolf. Other animals include Sloth bear, chousingha, chinkara, Barking deer, jackal, fox, Palm and Indian civet, hyena and porcupine. In addition, there are over 285 species of resident and migratory birds.
Schedules, accommodations and prices are accurate at the time of writing. They are subject to change.

including the Malabar-pied hornbill, Indian pitta, osprey, Grey-headed fishing eagle, and White-eyed buzzard. In winter months, thousands of migratory waterfowl including Brahmini duck, pochard, Barheaded goose, and coot visit the park.

Jamtara Wilderness Camp is a new tented lodge located in Pench National Park near the village of Jamtara from where it takes its name. The camp is the only one located on the Jamtara Gate side of the national park giving guests of the camp an enhanced wildlife experience due to its seclusion and the opportunity to cover a more diverse area of the jungle. Each of the 12 luxury tents is designed to feel light and open, allowing guests the optimum view of nature; with the option of rolling up the front panels of the tent, guests can bring the outside in but still be in the privacy of your own room. Decorated in safari colonial style, you will be transported back in time with hardwood flooring under your feet and wooden furniture at your fingertips. Although these are tented rooms the bathroom has been made into a permanent structure with all modern amenities and facilities. While many may sleep inside the tent, you may like to feel a little more connected with nature and take the option of sleeping outside on the patio.

KANHA NATIONAL PARK

Proceed on a drive to Kanha National Park (131 miles~4 hours) and its lush sal and bamboo forests, grassy meadows and ravines, which provided inspiration to Rudyard Kipling’s famous novel “The Jungle Book.” The largest wildlife sanctuary in Asia, Kanha National Park was one of the first Project Tiger reserves in India. It is, in many ways, Project Tiger’s biggest success story, with the tiger population having doubled since 1976. Over 740 sq-miles of bamboo thickets, extensive grasslands and dense sal forests make up Kanha – a series of plateaus which stretch across the eastern segment of the Satpura Ranges in Madhya Pradesh. This is the land of the tiger, the leopard, and wolf. Porcupine, jackal, sloth bear, jungle cat, macaque, dhole (wild dog), bison and a stunning spectrum of birds also inhabit Kanha, and make a trip to the sanctuary a must for any wildlife enthusiast. It is a truly thrilling experience, made more so by sightings of the tiger, gaur, or even the tiny mouse deer (muntjac) or the rare hardground barasingha, found only in Kanha. Go bird watching on a misty winter morning, and you’re likely to see beauties like the Racquet-tailed Drongo, Crimson-Breasted Barbet, Crested Hawk Eagle and Golden Oriole.

Activities over the next two days will mainly consist of jungle safaris, conducted in 4 x 4 vehicles, which are open from all sides to give you a panoramic unobstructed view of the landscape and every bird or animal that may just sneak into the grasses, and allowing you to listen to the sounds of nature, whether it be mating calls, alarm calls, distress calls or just a casual roar. In addition, nature walks can also be arranged as well as visits to the local villages.
Kahna Earth Lodge is just that—a place where you can be at one with the earth. The lodge architecture has been inspired by the stunning Gond tribal villages which are situated on the fringes of Kanha, making it blend effortlessly with the forest and rural architecture. The lodge respects the environment, and the simplistic buildings merge well into the landscape. Set in deep jungles in an area untouched by any kind of tourism or development, it offers the discerning guest the guarantee of privacy. The lodge has easy access to the Khatia/Kisli park gate and there is good opportunity to view a variety of mammals and birds around the lodge itself. It is rustic yet deluxe built mainly with local stone, logs, baked tiles, tribal artifacts and done up with fine rustic furniture, sanitary fittings and cotton upholstery. The lodge has only 12 beautiful open fronted bungalows with en suite bathrooms and large open verandahs. Delightful cuisine, a sparkling infinity pool, a nature library cum presentation room and office cum eco shop, rounds out the amenities.

DAYS 8/9/10—TUESDAY/WEDNESDAY/THURSDAY—NOVEMBER 8/9/10

BANDHAVGARH NATIONAL PARK

Your long, but culturally enriching drive, takes you to Bandhavgarh, a wildlife retreat where history and nature meet. Set amidst the Vindhyan Mountain Range in Madhya Pradesh, Bandhavgarh National Park is home to the famous white tigers of Rewa. The prominent ones captured in the park include the legendary white tiger called Mohan, who supposedly fathered several offspring found in zoos the world over. Bandhavgarh's history goes back 2,000 years and the earliest signs of habitation can be seen in the caves excavated from the cliffs to the north of the fort. Brahmi inscription here dates back to the 1st century BC, a hunting reserve of the royal family of Rewa in more recent times, where an alarming number of tigers were hunted down in pre-independence India. Bandhavgarh was mercifully declared a national park in 1968 and the tigers are now protected. The landscape is a unique mixture of steep and rocky hills, with flat tops and level grasslands in the valleys below. The vegetation found within the park is moist deciduous forest with fine sal trees and stretches of bamboo. Today, the sanctuary is one of the best places to witness the tiger in action with the highest density of tiger population for any wildlife park in the country. Prominent among other wild animals are nilgai, chital, chinkara, gaur, sloth bear and wild boar along with some 250 species of birds.

Like Kanha, jungle safaris are conducted by jeep. It is advisable to go on every possible safari, because a tiger sighting is never guaranteed and no sighting is the same. In addition, Bandhavgarh is famous for the archaeological remains of the Kalchuri period that have been found here. Baghela Museum houses the private collection of the Maharajah of Rewa and the stuffed body of Mohan, the first tiger found in the park in 1951. In addition, there is a unique collection of military weapons and other hunting materials on display.
Your home for the next three nights is situated in Rancha village only a stone’s throw from the coveted wildlife reserve. Kings Lodge is set amidst 12 acres of sal forest and it has four cottage rooms and eight stilt rooms. Each stilt unit has a wooden lofted balcony. All rooms are well appointed and decorated with tribal art, giving the lodge a jungle feel. The hotel also has a library, infinity swimming pool and watchtower as well as a massage deck. The lodge has been built to blend with the surrounding landscape and has eco-sensitive policies.

As darkness falls, in the peace and tranquility of the night and under the wonderful canopy of stars, one can hear various animals call – including the alarm call of the deer, the howling of jackals, or the occasional roar of a tiger.

Overnights at KINGS LODGE. (B,L,D Daily)

DAY 11~FRIDAY~NOVEMBER 11

KHAJURAHO

Begin another long drive to Khajuraho, situated in the northernmost part of Madhya Pradesh. The name Khajuraho is derived from the Khajur tree (the date palm tree), which is grown abundantly in the region. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and then embark on a tour of the Eastern group of Temples. Khajuraho is famous for its enchanting temples, considered the "high point" of Indian architectural genius in the medieval period. Originally there were 85 temples, of which only 22 still exist. The amazingly short span of 100 years, from 950 AD - 1050 AD, saw the completion of all the temples, in an inspired burst of creativity. With the wane of the Chandela Empire, these magnificent temples lay neglected, and vulnerable to the ravages of nature. It was only in this past century that they were rediscovered, restored and granted the recognition that they justly deserve.

The temples are now a world heritage site and belong not just to India but to the world and are some of the best preserved monuments of this antiquity. Most of the temples are built of sandstone in varying shades of buff, pink or pale yellow, and each belongs to a different sect – the Shiva, Vaishnava or Jaina Sects, but are often indistinguishable from one another to the untrained eye. The roofs are a series of graded peaks that resemble a mountain range and in all probability, represent the possibility of higher levels of spiritual attainment. Erotic scenes represent a relatively small part of the carvings but sensuous eroticism prevails throughout all of the sculptures. In general, lower indulgences appear lower on the temple while the deities appear near the top. The goddesses and gods represent the many manifestations of the divine Shakti and Shiva, the female and male principles, the Yin and the Yang. The divine sculptures in these temples are a tribute to life itself, embodying everything that is sublime and spontaneous about it. Popularly known as the 10th century temples, they represent a time frame when Khajuraho art was at its zenith.
A haven of peace and tranquility, Hotel Chandela offers easy access to the world famous Khajuraho temples, Panna National Park Tiger Reserve, and more. Tucked snugly amidst 11 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens, this hotel offers an array of modern comforts.

DAYS 12/13~SATURDAY/SUNDAY~NOVEMBER 12/13

KHAJURAO/VARANASI

Tour the temples this morning before your afternoon flight to Varanasi, also known as Kashi and Benares, nestled on the north bank of the Ganges River in the state of Uttar Pradesh in North India. It is one of the oldest living cities in the world, dating back about 3,500 years. For the pious Hindus, the city has always been the ultimate pilgrimage spot. These few lines by Mark Twain say it all: "Benaras is older than history, older than tradition, older even than legend and looks twice as old as all of them put together". Hindus believe that one who is graced to die on the land of Varanasi would attain salvation and freedom from the cycle of birth and re-birth. Abode of Lord Shiva and Parvati, the origins of Varanasi are yet unknown. Ganges in Varanasi is believed to have the power to wash away the sins of mortals. With Sarnath just a short distance away, the place where Buddha preached his first sermon after enlightenment, Varanasi has been a symbol of Hindu renaissance. Knowledge, philosophy, culture, devotion to Gods, Indian arts and crafts have all flourished here for centuries.

This evening, watch by boat the spiritual Aarti service and take a ride through the chaotic roads of Varanasi...this is one sight, which is nowhere else to be seen this way.

Begin your day next morning with an early boat ride on the holy river Ganges and watch as the sun rises over the faithful who gather to the riverbanks by the thousands to wash their sins away in the holy waters of the river. After breakfast, discover the many shops of Varanasi, or relax at your hotel. Your afternoon tour involves Sarnath, a small Buddhist town that is home to the Archeological Museum and the Mahabodhi Buddha Temple. Make sure to take a stroll in the deer park, where Buddha himself often meditated. Your evening is at leisure, or you can return to the river for the Aarti service one last time, not by boat this time.
The Radisson Hotel Varanasi is conveniently located in the heart of the city's main business district. The hotel's modern architecture, warm hospitality and top-notch services are sure to please travelers. All of the 116 guest rooms provide all modern comforts and the hotel features two restaurants, an elegant bar, casual tea/coffee lounge and poolside barbecue. In addition, you'll be able to enjoy not only their state-of-the-art health club but also yoga and massage at the spa. Overnights at the RADISSON HOTEL VARANASI. (B, L;B,D)

DAY 14~MONDAY~NOVEMBER 14
VARANASI/DELHI
One last chance for an optional early morning boat ride on the holy river Ganges to witness the cremation site, as well as the morning ritual of avowed Hindus washing their sins in the river. Return to the hotel for breakfast, and then enjoy a half day city tour of Varanasi which includes a visit to some of the most important temples in the city including the Kashi Vishwanath temple.

Kashi Vishwanath Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva, the temple has earned the name of Golden Temple due to the gold plating done using one ton of gold donated by Maharaja Ranjit Singh on its 50.8 feet high spire. Invaders destroyed the original temple and Rani Ahilyabai of Indore rebuilt it only in 1776. Again, the fanatic Mughal Emperor Aurangzeb destroyed the Vishvanath temple to replace it with the Gaynvapi Mosque. However, one can still see the remnants of the temple in the intricate and fine artwork of the western wall of the mosque. Today, the Kashi Vishwanath Temple and the Gyanvapi mosque lie adjacent to each other.

Continue to the airport to board your flight to Delhi where a day room awaits you at the CROWN PLAZA GURGAON. The balance of your day is at leisure before you are transferred to the airport for your flight home (B)

Day 14~Monday~November 14

Varanasi/Agra

Take an early morning boat cruise on the holy river Ganges to witness the cremation site, as well as the morning ritual of avowed Hindus washing their sins in the river. Return to the hotel for breakfast, and then enjoy a half-day city tour of Varanasi, which includes a visit to some of the most important temples in the city such as the Bharat Mata Mandir and the Durga Temple. Drive past the beautiful Tulsi Manas Temple and take a walk down Vishwanathji Ki Gali, the ancient alley that is home to some beautiful temples. Here you will find shops that sell every conceivable item required in a temple.

Continue to the airport to board your flight to Agra. Perhaps no other historical monument has evoked as much awareness and admiration from tourists and travelers alike as the magnificent Taj Mahal, considered the ultimate requiem of love from a great Mughal Emperor to his beloved wife. So overwhelming is the exquisite beauty and presence of this marble mausoleum that centuries later today, even the very land where it has been located has been immortalized as the City of the Taj.

Although the heritage of Agra is linked with the Mughal Dynasty, numerous other rulers also contributed to the rich past of this city. Modern Agra was founded by Sikandar Lodhi (Lodhi Dynasty) in the 16th century. Babur (founder of the Mughal Dynasty) also stayed for some time in Agra and introduced the concept of square, Persian-styled gardens here. Emperor Akbar, his grandson, built the Agra Fort and the city of Fatehpur Sikri in gratitude for an heir after his wife bore him a son. Agra came to its own when Shahjahan ascended to the throne of the Empire. He marked the zenith of Mughal architecture when he built the Taj Mahal in memory of his beloved wife, whom he affectionately named Mumtaz Mahal (Jewel of the Palace). In his later years, Shahjahan shifted his capital to the new city of Shahjahanabad in Delhi and ruled from there. Shahjahan was dethroned in 1658 by his son, Aurangzeb, who imprisoned him in the Agra Fort. Aurangzeb shifted the capital back to Agra until his death. After the death of Aurangzeb, the Mughal Empire would not again touch its peak and many regional kingdoms emerged. The post-Mughal era of Agra saw the rule of the Jats, Marathas, and finally the British took over the city.

Gloriously stretching over 35 acres of vibrant courtyards and situated in the heart of the city, the Mughal Sheraton offers 285 luxuriously furnished rooms and suites. All guest rooms are decorated with a touch of Old World splendor, and many offer a view of the Taj Mahal, located just over a mile away. You can dine in any of the on-site restaurants, serving authentic flavors of the Northwest Frontier, American or gourmet dishes.

AGRA

Early this morning, enjoy a sunrise visit to Taj Mahal. This visit, unlike the day before, will allow you a glimpse of this monument with the changing backdrop of the morning sky. Watch the monument go from a dull gray to a shimmering white during your visit. Return to hotel for breakfast.

It doesn’t take much for the wandering eye to discover that there’s more to Agra than just the fabled Taj Mahal. The city is a virtual gateway to a world of discovery…a freeze-frame from a resplendent era that's long since gone. Spend the rest of your day discovering this imposing city and its fabled past as you explore the monuments, the majesty of the buildings, and the exquisite arts and crafts… all cherished as priceless legacies of a nostalgic past. Overnight at the ITC MUGHAL HOTEL. (B,L,D)

DAY 16—WEDNESDAY—NOVEMBER 16
AGRA/JAIPUR

After a leisurely breakfast continue with your drive to Jaipur and en route visit the magnificent ghost city of Fatehpur Sikri, the short-lived capitol of the Mughal Empire between 1571 and 1585 during the reign of Emperor Akbar. Although brilliant and unusual from an architectural point of view, Akbar’s city was erected in an area that suffered from water shortages and it was abandoned shortly after Akbar’s death. The well-preserved palace and still used mosque are the main points of interest but you can wander around the ruins that are scattered behind the mosque.

Jaipur is the administrative and commercial capital of what was known as Rajputana. Begun in 1727 and completed in just eight years, Jaipur was the first city in India to enjoy rigorous town planning according to the principles laid down in “Shilpa Shastra,” an ancient Indian article on architecture. The city is protected by high walls, with wide, straight avenues that divide it into nine sectors (apparently reflecting the nine divisions of the universe, resembling the Indian horoscope), each named after the commodity and caste that lived and practiced their specific skills here—the order and space was at the time a total revolution in Indian cities. Upon arrival, you are escorted to your hotel where the remainder of the day is at leisure.

Your home for the next two nights is Hotel Rajputana Sheraton, one of the best hotels in the Pink City. One can find echoes of aristocracy and the nobility of royal Rajasthan in Rajputana Sheraton. Built on 7 acres of land with a lush green environment, the hotel offers beautiful views of the city. The Sheraton’s 216 rooms, exterior design, and gardens all reflect the spirit of Rajasthan and its royalty. In addition, the Sheraton is well equipped to offer guests the best in modern facilities and services. The four on-site restaurants serve international and exotic cuisine for you to enjoy. Offering beautiful views of the swimming pool, the Sheeshmahal Bar is an ideal place to unwind with a fine drink.

DAYS 17/18~THURSDAY/FRIDAY~NOVEMBER 17/18

JAIPUR

Jaipur is known as the Pink City, a rather idealized description of the terra-cotta-colored lime plaster that coats the old part of the city’s walls, buildings, and temples. The reasons for painting the town pink are unknown, but various theories have been suggested, from using pink to cut down glare, to the city’s founder, Jai Singh II’s, apparent devotion to Lord Shiva (whose favorite color is reputedly terra-cotta). Others believe Singh wanted to imitate the color of the sandstone used in the forts and palaces of his Mughal emperor friends. The most popular reason is that pink is the traditional color of hospitality, and the city was freshly painted and paved with pink gravel to warmly welcome Edward VII for his visit here in 1876. The city is painted pink once every 10 years by the Municipal Corporation, and in 2000 the painting was timed for a state visit, this time by former U.S. president Bill Clinton.

The history and times of Jaipur are deeply entwined with the stories of royal princes and princesses, with grand Mughals and later with visiting dignitaries from the British Royal family or 20th century royalty like the U.S. Presidential families. Modern Jaipur plays host to all of them and to many thousands who come here, enchanted by all that the city has to offer. Jaipur is undoubtedly a city of kings and queens and its distinctive architecture clearly emphasizes this. Even so it has a timeless appeal, since many of the traditional crafts patronized by 18th century rulers are still thriving. So, you have streets that are famous for jewelry, tie-and-dye, pottery, “meenakari,” leatherwork, and stone carvings.

Visit one of the major attractions at Jaipur, the Amber Fort. The breathtakingly beautiful complex of the Amber Fort consists of palaces, halls, pavilions, gardens, and temples. It is astounding that it took more than two centuries for its construction. The elegance exuded by the fort is simply awesome. On your way back, stop at the Hawa Mahal, or the Palace of Winds, located at the main street of the old city: the five-story building is a pink splendor with carved trelliswork. This structure was meant to be a window for the royal ladies to view the activities on the street, including daily life and processions. You will relish each moment of the royal retreat. Another landmark worth visiting is the former residence of the royal family, the City Palace. This charming palace reveals a combination of the Rajasthani and Mughal styles of architecture.
One of the other major attractions is the Armory Museum, housing an impressive array of weaponry. Visit the outdoor observatory built by the astronomer/ruler of Jaipur, Jantar Mantar, which is the largest stone and marble observatory in the world. The observatory has 17 large instruments, many of them still in working condition.

This evening, after a short time for relaxation at the hotel, you are taken to a blue pottery workshop, which features the use of blue glaze on pottery made from Fuller's Earth. This art came to Rajasthan from Kashmir and has been accepted and flourished ever since in this desert state. Overnights at the ITC RAJPUTANA HOTEL. (B,L,D Daily)

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT INDIA

Participants:
- Must be able to climb in and out of safari 4x4 vehicles unassisted. They should also be able to tolerate riding on uneven, bumpy dirt roads for long periods of time (6-9 hours maximum), as well as some off-road experiences when opportunities allow. Participants should be able to stand and/or walk moderate distances at an easy pace for up to a few hours at a time when visiting villages, towns or other sites. Some, if not most, of this walking may be on uneven ground or uphill.
- Driving in India is chaotic and unlike the orderly driving experienced in the United States. Your drivers are experts in navigating the roads with all the conditions that are prevalent and travelers should feel safe in the knowledge that your driver’s number one priority is to get you to your destination safely and as efficiently as possible.

General:
- True adventure in travel can sometimes be accompanied by unexpected changes in conditions, itineraries and occasionally your accommodations. Participants should travel with a spirit of adventure and flexibility.
- Remember to pack your patience and sense of humor! Be willing to look past self-imposed ideals of Western amenities and do not compare these new experiences with your life back home. Travel often includes visiting destinations with modest infrastructures and a bending definition of comfort.
- That being said some locations are nestled in absolute luxury where pampering is the norm. Participants should generally be in good health and prepared to travel in locations without medical facilities.

Air Schedules
Choosing the best possible air arrangements for our travelers is always a challenge. We work with many airlines that offer the best level of service, routings and value for our programs. While there may indeed be more direct routings available with another airline, the cost of these flights may not be within the budget that allows us to give you the best value possible. If you prefer to purchase your own international air, please feel free to choose the “land only” rate for this program. The start and end city for this program is Delhi, India.

Upon registration, you must provide your full legal name as it appears on your passport. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, you will be responsible for charges associated with reissuing the ticket.

CONSIDITIONS OF TRAVEL:

REGISTRATION

HOW TO BOOK: Fill out and sign the enclosed reservation form and send it, along with the relevant deposit as shown below, to: Classic Escapes Inc. 58-25 Queens Blvd., Woodside NY, 11377. Upon receipt of your signed reservation form and deposit, we will, subject to availability, reserve your spot on the tour. You November consider your booking confirmed when you receive a confirmation notice and invoice from us.

PAYMENTS

DEPOSIT: A deposit of $750 per person for the main trip and $250 for the extension must be submitted at the time of booking. Deposits may be paid by check or charged to American Express, MasterCard, Visa or Discover.

FINAL PAYMENT: Final payment is due 95 days (July 29, 2016) before departure – you will receive a final invoice. Final payment is payable by check or money order ONLY.

RATES: Rates are based on the minimum number of guests outlined in this document, plus airfare costs, currency exchange rates and other factors and are subject to change. Though it is rare for Classic Escapes to make a price adjustment after promotion of an itinerary, we do reserve the right to assess a surcharge if the minimum is not met, or if increases are forced upon us by airlines or other partners or because of changes in currency exchange rates.

NOT INCLUDED: Cost of passport and visa fees, and service charges for obtaining visa fees; excess baggage charges levied by airlines; laundry and other items of a personal nature; optional personal, baggage and tour cancellation insurance policy; cost for anything not specifically included in listing above.

SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: The quoted rate is valid for the first two single rooms booked and on a first-come, first-served basis. If more than two single rooms are needed, an additional supplement will apply. Single accommodations are not guaranteed, but will be provided at additional cost if available (see reservation form for cost.) The single room supplement pays for privacy, not better accommodations. For passengers who are traveling alone and wish to share a room with another tour member, we will do our best to provide a roommate. However, if this is not possible, you will be required to pay the single room supplement prior to your departure from the USA.

GRATUITIES AND TAXES: Gratuities for baggage handling, service charges and taxes imposed by hotels, and entrance fees to all points of interest as outlined in the itinerary are included. U.S. and foreign airport taxes are included in air costs. Tips to drivers and naturalist are included.

CANCELLATIONS, DEVIATIONS & CHANGES

TRIP INSURANCE: Because of the array on unforeseen circumstances that could delay or cancel a guest’s trip, we highly recommend that guests purchase an optional insurance policy. Information will be sent to registrants.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Cancellations are only effective on receipt of written notification. The following per person fees are applicable on this tour:

- Up to 95 days prior to departure, less $250 handling fee.
- 94-75 days prior to departure, deposit is forfeited.
- 74-60 days prior to departure, less 50% of tour cost.
- Less than 60 days prior to departure, no refund due.

These cancellation fees are also in addition to any fees imposed by airlines.

CHANGE FEES: Once you reserve your tour, changes are possible subject to availability of air or land space at the time of request. Should there be any change fees imposed by airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to availability of any space, this cost will be invoiced to you.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: We would be happy to make additional travel plans for you, including specially arranged pre- or post-tour extensions different than those that may be offered in conjunction with this tour. A service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.
Schedules, accommodations and prices are accurate at the time of writing. They are subject to change.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORT & VISAS: The onus is upon the guest to ensure that passports and visas are valid for the countries visited and for the applicable time period, as outlined by the U.S. Department of State (travel.state.gov) or by the passport holder’s country. Classic Escapes, their staff and their agents cannot be held liable for any visas, etc. not held by the guests, nor for the cost of obtaining visas.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send a pre-departure packet to you. This packet contains all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, insurance information, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Final documents and tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

OPTIONAL AIR TRANSPORTATION: Roundtrip, economy-class flights via UNITED AIRLINES, and/or other IATAN carriers are between DENVER and NEW DELHI noted in the itinerary. Rates are based on special promotional fares; cancellation fees apply once tickets are issued. Departures from other cities in the USA are possible at additional cost; inquire at the time of reservation. Please note that these promotional fares are subject to 10 passengers traveling together on the same airline routing and itinerary. If this minimum is not met, the special group rates are not applicable and it might become necessary to issue instant purchase tickets earlier than when final payment is due in order to take advantage of airfares that are similar to the group rates. Should this occur, you will be contacted with the details.

AIRLINE SEATING: For UNITED AIRLINES we request seats together for the group. All planes are non-smoking. We can request a seating preference on your behalf, however requested seats cannot be guaranteed. Requests should be made in writing no later than 60 days prior to departure. Bulkhead and/or emergency row seats can only be requested at airport check-in on the day of departure. Boarding passes will only be issued at the airport on the day of departure. You may inquire about seat changes during check in, based on availability and is at the sole discretion of airport staff.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: This program is based on travel with UNITED AIRLINES. For a list of the airline’s partners, visit https://www.united.com/web/en-US/content/company/alliance/default.aspx. You may obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit.

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

DEPARTURE TAXES: Please note the amount of departure tax reflected in the airfare is subject to change, at the discretion of governments and airlines, and with no advance notice. Should this occur, you will be invoiced prior to departure for any additional taxes imposed.

TRIP DETAILS

ACCOMMODATIONS: You will marvel at the wonderful accommodations provided throughout your tour. All rooms have private bathroom facilities and air conditioning and/or fans. All rates are based on double occupancy. Most rooms are twin-bedded, but king-size beds are occasionally available and should be requested in advance. Accommodations listed in this itinerary are correct at time of writing, but on rare occasions may be substituted for a different property of comparable quality.

MEALS: All meals as specified in the itinerary. Please notify us if you have special dietary needs or requests, and we will do our best to accommodate.

INOCULATIONS: When it comes to vaccination and disease prevention, we suggest that travelers first review information provided by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (www.cdc.gov/travel) and then review those details with their personal physicians.

WATER: It is always advisable to drink bottled and/or filtered water when traveling overseas. Safe drinking water will be provided to travelers free of charge in the vehicles and during meals.

BAGGAGE: On average, international flights from the USA allow two pieces of checked luggage, each not exceeding 50 pounds; however we always recommend that you check your airline’s policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. Despite this weight allowance, we always suggest guests travel light. Also soft-sided duffel bags are ideal for this tour, as they stow best in vehicles and airplanes with limited space.
Schedules, accommodations and prices are accurate at the time of writing. They are subject to change.
